

Miss D. Weston

Elm Street.

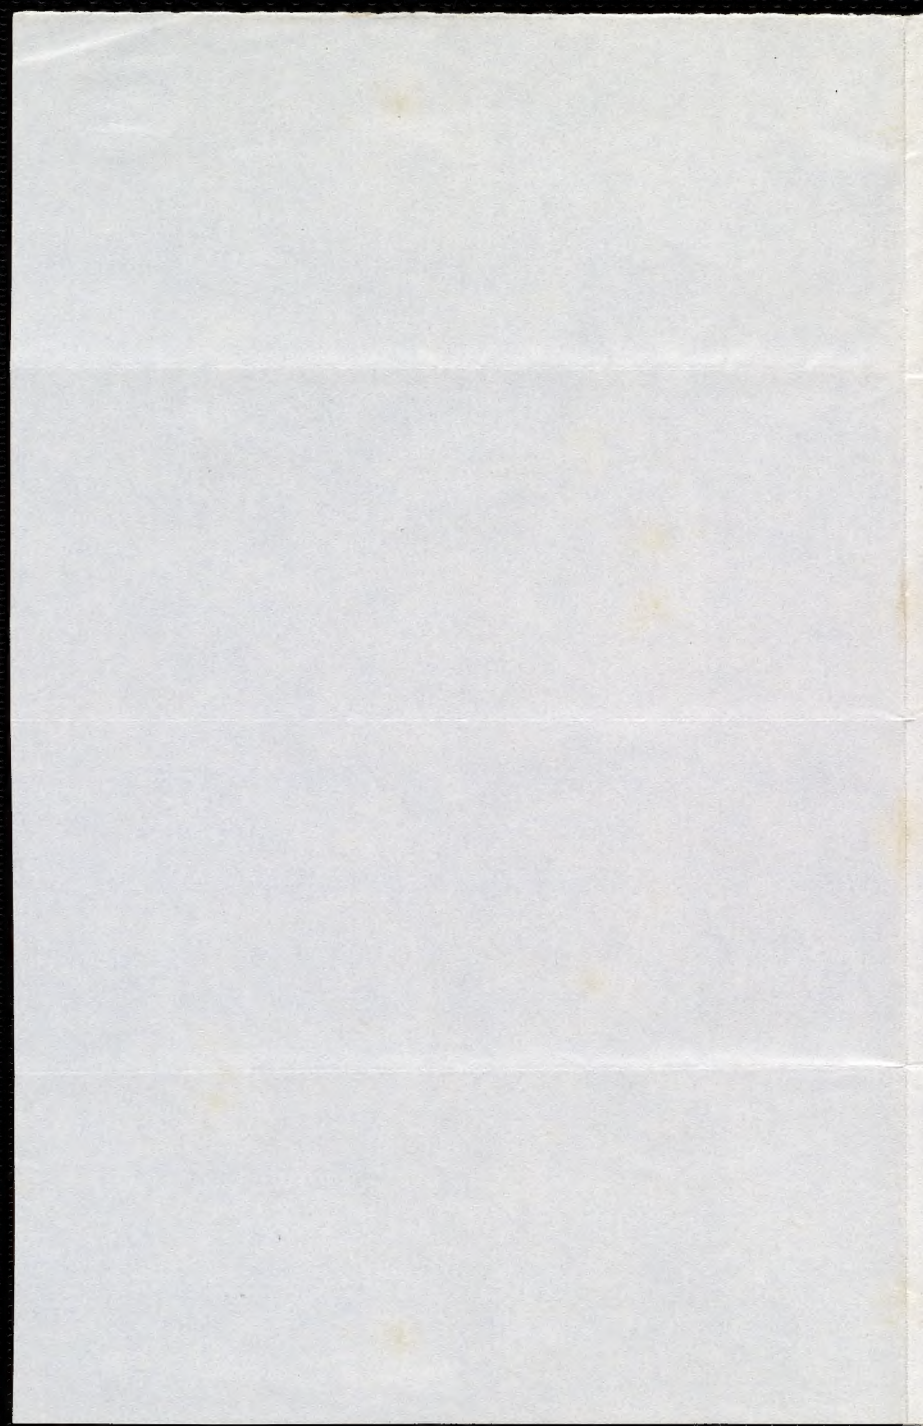

Ms. A.9.2.17.17

Miss Arnold presents her Compliments to Miss Weston and regrets that various occupations have prevented her from sending the enclosed sum of eight dollars earlier now but she hopes it has not interfered with any arrangement of the sales -

✓ If the letter of Rev.
John Wesley to his brother Charles can be procured for Miss A. she would like to have that also, at any time most convenient to Miss Weston.
